We at HSWA value the life of each and every animal in our facility. HSWA screens for the health, behavior, and temperament of each animal to the best of our ability during the animal's stay in our care. However, there is always a chance that the animal may display behaviors or signs of illness that were not seen while in our care. Please be aware that you are fully responsible for any expenses from the time of adoption forward.

I certify that the information is complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge. I authorize HSWA to verify the information on my application.
